

Title

(Times New Roman 14 in bold letters and centered). The title must be concise and easy to understand. Scientific names must be in italics, followed by the author's name (without the year) and the family names in parentheses. (E.g.: Agraulis vanillae L. (Nymphalidae))

Author's names, separated by a comma, below the title (Times New Roman 10, complete-justified). The last name must be in capital letters, as well as the first letter of the first name, followed by the initial of the middle name. After the name, a number like superscript linked with the authors' affiliation must be written. An asterisk will indicate the corresponsal author. E.g.: SÁNCHEZ, Luis N.<sup>1</sup>, DOMÍNGUEZ, José S.<sup>1*</sup> y CABRERA-LATER, Sonia F.<sup>2</sup>.

<sup>1</sup> List each authors' affiliation identified by call numbers whenever more than one address is listed, separated by a comma. E.g.: <sup>1</sup> Centro de Investigaciones Entomológicas, <sup>2</sup> Facultad de Ciencias Exactas, Físicas y Naturales de la Universidad Nacional de Córdoba, <sup>3</sup> Centro de Estudios Patagónicos).

* corresponsal author's e-mail, preceded by an asterisk.

The abstract (Times New Roman 11, complete-justified) should have a minimum of 250 words and a maximum of 400 words, presented as one paragraph. This should contain a brief introduction, objectives, material and methods, results and discussion/conclusion. Do not include references, tables, figures, etc. Paper size must be A4 (upper margin 1.5 cm, lower margin 2, right and left margin 2.5) and simple spaced.