ABSTRACT SUBMISSION AND ORGANIZATION

UNTIL SEPTEMBER 15th!

The abstract can be in Spanish, Portuguese or English. The scientific work shall be presented in a poster (P) or in oral format (O), and it should be organized by themes. Depending on the number of works presented per format, time and room, the organizing committee may change the modality, after communication with the authors.

Regardless of format, participants shall present an abstract to be peer-reviewed to elen2015resumenes@gmail.com. While sending the abstract, the first author must be registered. Each one registered shall send up to two (2) abstracts, but are able to participate in other abstracts as co-authors. Abstracts must follow the instructions published in our website: <http://www.elen5.com.ar/english/inscripciones.php#Resumenes>

There are four thematic areas:

- Systematic, morphology and Biodiversity of Heterocera (SMBH)
- Systematic, morphology and Biodiversity of Rhopalocera (SMBR)
- Ecology, biogeography, conservation and evolution (EBCE)
- Lepidopterans of importance to man (agriculture, health, cultural importance) (LIH)

The file names (format .doc or .rtf) must have the last name of the first author in capital letters, the abstract number of this author (1 or 2), format (O, P) and the thematic area (short form), all separates by underscores.

For example: LUDUEÑA_1_O_SMBH.doc; LUDUEÑA_2_P_LIH.doc

SYMPOSIA PROPOSAL

So far, these are the confirmed symposia (tentative titles):

Symposia I: Ecology, biogeography, conservation and evolution. Coordinator: Lucas Kaminski; e-mail: lucaskaminski@yahoo.com.br

Symposia II: Heterocera taxonomy and systematics. Coordinator: Luis Parra; e-mail luparra@udec.cl

Symposia III: Lepidoptera with economic importance. Coordinators: Patricia Fichetti; Ma José Barrionuevo; e-mails patofichetti@yahoo.com.ar

If you are interested in taking part as a speaker, please contact the coordinator.

Proposals will be received until July 31st, 2015 in our e-mail elen2015argentina@gmail.com. Each proposal shall consist of a brief introduction to the symposia, the names, workplace and e-mail of the coordinator and three or four guest speakers. The coordinator will assume the task of introducing the speakers and their presentation, leading the discussion and concluding. After the discussion, questions and answers, the coordinator shall make a brief theme conclusion and up-to-date. The speakers should be experts in an area or theme, preferably experts in Lepidoptera. The speakers will deal with a central topic from different angles by means of an oral presentation of 20 minutes each. Due to the tentative chronogram, there will be 4 symposia. At the moment, the organization does not have the financial support to cover guest speakers, so this fact must be considered while making the proposal.
